(1) Ami G F C
 I'm afraid it's been too long to try to find the reasons why
 Ami G F C
 I let my world close in around a smaller patch of fading sky
 Ami G F F
 But now I've grown beyond the walls to where I've never been
 Ami G F
 And it's still winter in my wonderland

(R) Ami G F C
 I'm wai--ting for the world to fall
 Ami G F F
 I'm wai--ting for the scene to change
 Ami G F C
 I'm wai--ting when the colors come
 Ami G F Ami G F
 I'm waiting to let my world come undone

(2) I close my eyes and try to see the world unbroken underneath
 The farther off and already it just might make the life I lead
 A little more than make-believe when all my skies are painted blue
 And the clouds don't ever change the shape of who I am to You

(R) Ami G F C
 I'm wai--ting for the world to fall
