G (I1) Ami G F С Ami F C

(1) I'm afraid it's been too long to try to find the reasons why I let my world close in around a smaller patch of fading sky But now I've grown beyond the walls to where I've never been

And it's still winter in my wonderland

Ami G F (R) I'm wai--ting for the world to fall Ami G F I'm wai -- ting for the scene to change F I'm wai--ting when the colors come F Ami G F I'm waiting to let my world come undone

(2) I close my eyes and try to see the world unbroken underneath The farther off and already it just might make the life I lead A little more than make-believe when all my skies are painted blue

And the clouds don't ever change the shape of who I am to You

Ami G (R) I'm wai--ting for the world to fall I'm wai--ting for the scene to change Ami G F I'm wai--ting when the colors come Ami Dmi Ami I'm waiting to let my world come undone

(I2) When I catch the light of falling stars Ami Dmi my view is changing me (my view is changing me) my view is changing me (my view is changing me) My view is changing me

(I3) Ami G F Ami G F C I'm wai--ting Ami G C I'm wai--ting

(R) I'm waiting for the world to fall I'm waiting for the scene to change I'm waiting when the colors come I'm waiting to let my world come undone
