```
       E   A   E              F#mi
(1) An old man turned ninety-eight
       E            A      E             F#mi
    He won the lottery and died the next day
           E     A           E      F#mi
    It's a black fly in your Chardonnay
           E         A          E           F#mi
    It's a death row pardon two minutes too late
                  E      A                  E F#mi
    And isn't it ironic?  Don't you think?

                  E A      E       F#mi
(R) It's like rain on your wedding day
                E    A           E       F#mi
    It's a free ride  when you've already paid
                   E    A         E           F#mi
    It's the good advice  that you just didn't take
        G            F#mi         E
    And who would've thought it figures

        E       A         E         F#mi
(2) Mr. Play-it-Safe was afraid to fly
                  E   A                    E        F#mi
    He packed his suitcase and kissed his kids goodbye
                  E          A       E         F#mi
    He waited his whole damn life to take that flight
                E            A                  E                F#mi
    And as the plane crashed down he thought, ``Well isn't this nice''
                  E      A                  E F#mi
    And isn't it ironic?  Don't you think?

         D                E
(I) Well life has a funny way
                                                      D
    Of sneaking up on you when you think everything's okay
                          E
    And everything's going right

(I2)And life has a funny way
    Of helping you out when you think everything's gone wrong
                                  A
    And everything blows up in your face

      E       A               E             F#mi
(3) A traffic jam when you're already late
         E       A            E          F#mi
    A no-smoking sign on your cigarette break
              E            A                  E          F#mi
    It's like ten thousand spoons when all you need is a knife
         E                    A               E                        F#mi

    It's meeting the man of my dreams and then meeting his beautiful wife
                  E      A                  E F#mi
    And isn't it ironic?  Don't you think?
                 E      A          E           F#mi
    A little too ironic  and yeah, I really do think
```

    D                                          E
(I3)Life has a funny way of sneaking up on you
    Life has a funny, funny way of helping you out
    Helping you out
```
