       F#  H   F#             G#mi
(1) An old man turned ninety-eight.
    He won the lottery and died the next day
    It's a black fly in your chardonnay.
    It's a death row pardon two minutes too late
             F#      H          F#    G#mi
    Isn't it ironic?  Don't you think

              F#  H        F#      G#mi
(R) It's like rain on your wedding day.
                F#  H            F#      G#mi
    It's a free ride when you've already paid
                   F#  H         F#          G#mi
    It's the good advice that you just didn't take
    A                  G#mi          F#
    And who would have thought... it figures

(2) Mr. Play-it-safe was afraid to fly
    He packed his suitcase and kissed his kids good-bye
    He waited his whole damn life just to take that flight
    And as the plane crashed down he thought ``Well isn't this nice...''
    And isn't it ironic? Don't you think?

(R)

         H                                      F#
(3) Well, life has a funny way of sneaking up on you
                                              G#mi
    When you think everything is okay and everything's going right
        H                                   F#
    And life has a funny way of helping you out when
                                              G#mi
    You think everything's gone wrong and everything blows up in your face

(4) A traffic jam when you are already late
    A no-smoking sign on your cigarette break
    It's like ten thousand spoons when all you need is a knife
    It's like meeting the man of my dreams then meeting his beautiful wife
    And isn't it ironic? Don't you think?
    A little too ironic. And yeah I really do think

(R)

    H                                      F#
(5) Life has a funny way of sneaking up on you
    H                          F#              H
    Life has a funny, funny way of helping you out, helping you out
